

Plagiarism Declaration

This form needs to accompany your COSC 264 assignment submission.

I understand that plagiarism means taking someone else's work (text, program code, ideas, concepts) and presenting them as my own, without proper attribution. Taking someone else's work can include verbatim copying of text, figures/images, or program code, or it can refer to the extensive use of someone else's original ideas, algorithms or concepts.

I hereby declare that:

- My assignment is my own original work. I have not reproduced or modified code, figures/images, or writings of others without proper attribution. I have not used original ideas and concepts of others and presented them as my own.
- I have not allowed others to copy or modify my own code, figures/images, or writings. I have not allowed others to use original ideas and concepts of mine and present them as their own.
- I accept that plagiarism can lead to consequences, which can include partial or total loss of marks, no grade being awarded and other serious consequences, including notification of the University Proctor.
